Committee (DT- HSJCC)
Presents

A Lunch N' Learn Session

On

THE REINTEGRATION CENTRE PEER SUPPORT MODEL &
TORONTO SOUTH DETENTION CENTRE
With

Amber Kellen and Andrea Monteiro

Learning Objectives:

- Learn about the challenges and successes experienced by the Toronto South Detention Centre and the JHS Reintegration Centre in addressing reintegration needs of inmates in/recently released from provincial custody.
- Discuss the Reintegration Centre Peer Support Model
- Increase your understanding about building capacity for people who come into contact with the justice system and who have needs which can be met by one or more of the provincial human services partners.

Amber Kellen, B.A., B.S.W., M.P.P.A. Currently Amber is the Director of Community Initiatives, Policy and Research at The John Howard Society of Toronto. She is responsible for local research and policy initiatives and community engagement projects. Having completed the development phase of the collaborative hub-like service model called the Reintegration Centre in South Etobicoke, she is now focusing on its implementation and evaluation.

Andrea Monteiro, B.A., M.A. of Criminology. Currently Andrea is the Deputy Superintendent of Treatment and Programs at the Toronto South Detention Centre and is one of the Ministry's Direct Supervision Provincial Co-Leads. She has held a number of corporate and operational positions that often involved delivering on high-priority initiatives.
