

The Toronto Regional Human Services & Justice Coordinating Committee
presents:

A Conversation about the Police Response to Street Involved People during the Pan Am Games

FREE Webinar

June 17, 2015

10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Purpose:

- To receive updates on the Toronto Police Pan Am Games Planning Team
- To bring together the justice and mental health sectors to share knowledge, responsibilities, and to problem solve.
- To facilitate a shared learning process that provides the opportunity to build capacity and shared responsibility within the mental health and justice sectors.

Presenter:

Toronto Police Staff Sgt. Devin Kealey, Pan Am/Parapan Am Games Planning Team

Target Audience:

Individuals and organizations that provide services to people with mental health, addictions and other human service needs within the criminal justice system. This includes those working in the fields of corrections, community services, housing, and health.

Learning Objectives:

As a result of the webinar, you will:

Increase your understanding about building capacity for people who come into contact with the justice system and who have needs which can be met by one or more of the provincial human services system.
